Standing Orders

Amended July 2017

Review dated: May 2018

Using Evenley Parish Council's standing orders

1. Standing orders are the written rules of a local council (i.e. a town or parish council). They are used to confirm the council's internal organisational, administrative and procurement procedures and procedural matters for meetings. They are not the same as the policies of the council but they may refer to them.
2. These standing orders cover the administration of appointments, contracts and planning applications, dealing with confidential business and with requests for information for Evenley Parish Council. A local council must have standing orders for the procurement of contracts.
3. Meetings of full council, councillors, the Responsible Financial Officer and Proper Officer are subject to many statutory requirements. These standing orders confirm those statutory requirements. They also control the number, place, quorum, notices and other procedures for committee and sub-committee meetings because these are subject to fewer statutory requirements.
4. Throughout this document, the term Proper Officer is used to refer to the Evenley Parish Council Clerk. The Clerk is also the Responsible Financial Officer (RFO).
5. These standing orders include financial regulations, which are standing orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local council. The financial regulations, as opposed to the standing orders of a council, include most of the requirements relevant to the Responsible Financial Officer.
6. After the main sections of this document, Addendum1 deals with planning-related matters.
7. Further information and essential documentation for councillors includes Declaration of Acceptance of office, Code of Conduct, Declaration of Interests, Communication Protocol etc. Our Clerk (clerk@evenleypc.org.uk) can give more details.
8. Finally, the terms "Chairman" and "Vice-Chairman" are used in the document, for expediency. It is not intended to imply that post-holders will be male.
